Public Sale.

WILL be sold, at public auction, on Tuesday the 7th day of January next, being the second day of Prince William Court; at the late residence of Alexander Henderson, of Dumfries; all the personal property at the mansion house. It is useless to enumerate it particularly, but amongst many other articles are such as follows:

A large quantity of bedding of superior quality: a piano: an elegant violin: a new fashionable carriage with plated harness, and a pair of horses: 3 milch cows: 40 or 50 hams of prime old bacon: valuable carpeting: tea ware and glassware, etc. etc.

On this property a credit of 9 months will be given, the purchaser giving bond and security, bearing interest from the date if not paid punctually.

Five slaves are for sale, viz: a first rate female cook, a likely well tutored girl of 14, a young man of good character a rough blacksmith, and two valuable farming negro men, one about 25, the other about 33 years old. The one about 25, to be sold as near Fauquier courthouse as may be, to be near his wife, and the other for a like reason near Leesburg. Innan Horner, Esq. will sell the youngest. These people may be seen at Dumfries till the day of sale, and on that day, but will not be publicly exposed—the executor does not deal with foreign purchaser, or their agents—they need not call, and are asked not to do so. Cash will be asked for the servants.

The dwelling house itself with its appurtenances will be sold on very moderate and accommodating terms. The house is spacious and convenient; the out houses are good, and the garden prepared with great labor and taste, so as to be at once remarkably productive and handsome. The society of the village is very agreeable and a bargain may be had in this property.

Having been banished by the Chinese government, impelled by religious fervour he returned, but was soon discovered, and put in irons. The Manchus then suddenly affected much kindness, ordering his chains to be broken, and overwhelmed with caresses, but they had honey in their mouths and poison in their hearts.

They boldly desired him to abjure his religion; on his side he spoke of the futility of the Chinese rites and extolled the christian dogmas. The perfidious Manchus had concealed two persons behind the partition who wrote down the bishop's words. An accusation was then drawn up and the bishop was taken before the Vice Roy, who being a sworn enemy to all christians, condemned him immediately to die. In an instant this respectable old man was stripped of his robes and led forth to the place of execution, where an immense crowd was assembled. AXELDRIA
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 28.
"When the steed is stolen," &c. The proverb is too stale to need repetition. The application of it however, in the case of the President's Message, published in this day's paper, is exact. Vessels fitted for all the purposes of privateering and piracy, have been equipping and equipped in the ports of the U. S. for months past; and Mr. Madison's proposition unfortunately comes after they have sailed. Nay, perhaps, after they have committed some important acts of aggression. However, as another old proverb says, "It is better late than never," and perhaps the proceedings of Congress on the President's message, may stop the equipping and sailing of other pirates, sometime or other.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

December 27.

Yesterday the President sent to both Houses of Congress a Message stating, that the existing laws had been found insufficient to prevent violations of the duties of the U. States as a nation at peace towards other nations, on the high seas, and other unlawful acts by vessels fitted out and equipped for war in the waters of the union, and therefore recommending it to Congress in order more effectually to maintain the respect due to the laws and to the character and relations of the country, to make such further legislative provisions as may be requisite for detaining vessels so equipped and furnished with warlike armaments within the jurisdiction of the U. States. This message was read and referred to the committee of foreign relations.

The bill appointing a Reporter to report and publish the decisions of the supreme court was agitated in a committee of the whole house, but was lost by a motion to strike out the first clause.

The House was very thin, many members being absent on leave.

ADDRESS,

Written for the Alexandria Thespia Society, and delivered to the audience on the opening of the Theatre;

Our eyes deceive us if our pious ends have not drawn forth again our former friends:

But stay! How pious! other tongues should say,

Since that's a cloak Knaves dress in ev'ry day:

But to the point! It cheers our toilsome way,

To be thus noticed by the sage and gray:

The former buying up a favorite cause; the latter crowning it with their applause:

Thus crushing ev'ry dawn of rising fear, suscites the voice that meets the list'ning ear.

How'er defective in our means to please;

How little claim our action has for fees; Yet from this jury, urg'd by nature's laws,

We hope to gain a verdict for our Cause. What cause? 'tis ask'd! Humanity replies,

That strongest cord on which our peace relies;

That plun'est duty, easy understood, that needs no propper with the great and good;

Whilst CHARITY, behind, in silent mood,

A-waiting this appeal to feeling, stood Sweet Charity! apostrophised by love: That sacred signet, passport for above.

What though attack'd by over-anxious zeal,

Must we then cease to think, and cease to feel;

Leave all the attributes of man behind, And bid the wretched outcast feed on wind;

Tell the pale sufferer, e'en in sickness low,

To fast is holy! satire on their woe!

No, though the cynic scoff, or zealot low'r;

And lend to persecution all their pow'.

Yet will we act, nor fear such frightful odds,

Trusting that cause is worthy, that God's.

Thus, then, the matter's plain before your view,

We sow the seed, the harvest rests with you:

Let not the wretched, unbefriended go,

But stop the starting tears before they flow: Let hope bid suffering innocence arise, And joy once more come sparkling from their eyes: Let not the child, or widow, want you aid, For gifts to them are promised to be paid; And last, we ask, what e'er our errors be, You'll test them with the touch of CHARITY.

EDUCATION.

The female Academy, taught by Mrs. Edmonds, was examined on Tuesday last. Many attended, and were highly gratified. The young ladies have made great proficiency. None could read better; they are well acquainted with Grammar; and are familiar with their Maps, and wrought several Problems both on the Celestial and Terrestrial Globes with accuracy and despatch. We congratulate our fellow-citizens in having such a School, and assure ourselves that it will continue to receive every encouragement.

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,
Have just received from LEE'S PA
TENT MEDICINE STORE, No. 46
Maiden Lane, N. York.

A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines.
For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventer's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile, & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness of the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Tapeworm, or large round worm; the Ascaris, or small round worm; the Cocciaria, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tenia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gum; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions; epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fetid stools; vomiting; large and hallow; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face oated and flushed.

Persons affected with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and fits of chint—a dreadful disorder which annually destroys the hands of the infant part of our citizens it likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number who in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.
